

Insects That May Show Up In Southwest Michigan Vineyards*

June 8, 2006 Edition

Grape Flea Beetle

Flea beetle larvae will be found primarily near the borders and can cause slight damage to leaves, but pose little economic risk.

Ladybeetles

The presence of ladybeetle larvae in your vineyard is a good thing, as they can provide biological control of other pests in your vineyard.

